CODE OF CONDUCT & BASIC AGREEMENT

Costume On is curating a safe, respectful space both for teachers and attendees. Costume On is a place of equality, tolerance and support for all people, regardless of gender, race, nationality or religious beliefs.

All students must acknowledge and agree to the terms below-

I acknowledge receipt of and hereby agree to uphold and act in accordance to Costume On's Code of Conduct:

-I will treat all teachers and fellow students with courtesy regardless of their skill level

-I will treat teachers and fellow students with courtesy and respect regardless of their skill level, gender, nationality, religious affiliation or appearance

-I acknowledge and understand that each teacher will notify student of their individual policy terms in writing at the time of registration in regards to kit fees, cutoff date for entry and cancellation deadlines/terms. By registering with a teacher, I am agreeing to their individual terms.

-I hereby acknowledge, understand and agree to Costume On providing a service of coordination and in no way guarantees class content

-I hereby acknowledge and agree that attendees are submitted from the general public. If an issue arises with another student, I will notify the teacher/an admin immediately.

-I hereby acknowledge and accept that teacher submissions are from the general public and not prescreened aside from required class proposals. If an issue arises with a teacher, I will notify Costume On immediately.

-I acknowledge and agree that self-promotion/sales are allowed in web links for teacher bios, coupons or discount codes at the bottom of the class handout pdf or mentioned at the end of class. Sales by students within the context of Costume On are not permitted.

-I acknowledge and agree to act in a courteous and respectful manner while in the general lounge room
